Search and Solve: Murder Mystery
Crack the Case by Finding the Missing Words

Agnes Knight
A puzzle-solving twist on classic whodunits

Summary

Search and Solve: Murder Mystery invites fans of Color and Solve and Murdle to crack the case—one word at a time. Each puzzle begins with a short, suspense-filled mystery, but crucial clues have been redacted and replaced with tantalizing blanks. The missing words? They’re hidden in the accompanying word search.

As solvers hunt for the terms in the word search, they’ll uncover the vital details that piece together the full story: who did it, how, where, and why. This unique premise offers puzzle and murder mystery lovers an all-new format to devour.

My Book of Petty Thoughts

A Journal of Everything I Want to Say Out Loud but Can't

Gabriella Zola

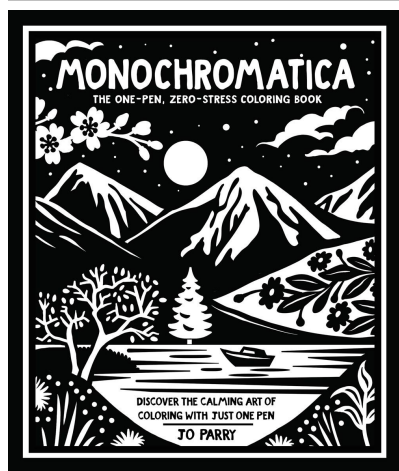

A fun and freeing journal for when you have nothing nice to say

Summary

This exhilarating book gives readers permission to vent their true feelings about family, friends, coworkers, in-laws, roomies, and anyone who—it must be said—should not be wearing that outfit. My Book of Petty Thoughts offers a safe space where readers can embrace their prickly side, unleash their snarkiest (but let's face it, valid) comments, and then return to being a nice person. Thanks to petty prompts like, "Whose social media post made you want to barf today?" "What did you want to scream at a stranger today, but didn't?" "Design an ironic award for someone," and "Petty grievance of the day: _____," this judgment-free journal lets you say the quiet part out loud without shame or alienation.

Monochromatica

The One-Pen, Zero-Stress Coloring Book

Jo Parry

Discover the calming art of coloring with just one pen

Summary

Coloring doesn't need to be complicated to be powerful. Monochromatica transforms simplicity into serenity with hand-drawn illustrations made for single-color creativity. Without the pressure of choosing a palette, each page becomes a meditative ritual of smooth lines, steady strokes, and the soothing glide of ink across paper. Clearly marked spaces guide your color, creating structure and flow—perfect for overthinkers and anxious minds. The result is a calming rhythm that feels intuitive and deeply satisfying, like following a gentle path across the page, while also producing striking finished artwork. Printed on thick, high-quality paper that works beautifully with a fine-liner or marker, this book lifts decision fatigue and brings peace back to the day—one pen, one page, and one mindful breath at a time.
